

SUNDAY EUCHARIST WITH PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JUNE 27, 2021

CHRIST'S CHURCH
CATHEDRAL,
HAMILTON

Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity. It is through encountering God within worship that we are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the glories of the Anglican Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy refers to the patterns, forms, words and actions through which public worship is conducted.

The people's responses are in bold.

A Prayer for the Power of the Spirit among the People of God

God of all power and love, we give thanks for your unfailing presence and the hope you provide in times of uncertainty and loss. Send your Holy Spirit to enkindle in us your holy fire. Revive us to live as Christ's body in the world: a people who pray, worship, learn, break bread, share life, heal neighbors, bear good news, seek justice, rest and grow in the Spirit. Wherever and however we gather, unite us in common prayer and send us in common mission, that we and the whole creation might be restored and renewed, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Gathering of the Community

When the service is accompanied by music, it often begins with an instrumental or vocal piece of music during which the congregation can prepare for worship.

GATHERING MUSIC

"Little" Fugue in g BWV 578

Johann Sebastian Bach

WORDS OF WELCOME

SENTENCE

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.
2 Timothy 1.10

THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

And also with you.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

This prayer was an English rendering of a Latin prayer that began the liturgy in the medieval church before the Reformation. It remains a distinctive part of Anglican worship to this day.

Almighty God,
to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA (sung by all)

William Mathias, 1980

The Gloria, or some other song of praise, centers the service on the God we gather to praise in our worship.

Glo-ry to God in the high- est, and peace to his peo-ple on earth. Lord God, heav'n-ly King, al-might-y God and Fa- ther, we wor-ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo - ry. Lord Je- sus_ Christ, on - ly Son of the Fa-ther, Lord God, Lamb of God you take a-way the sin of the world: have mer - cy on us; you are sea - ted at the right hand of the Fa - ther, re - ceive our prayer.
For you a-lone are the ho - ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High, Je- sus Christ, with the Ho - ly Spi - rit, in the glo - ry of God the Fa - ther. A - - men.

THE COLLECT FOR THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The collect is the prayer appointed for each Sunday that “collects” the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures of the day.

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Let us pray.

God of hope,
you are ruler of both night and day,
guardian of those who wander in shadows.
Be new light and life for those who live in the darkness of despair, for those imprisoned by guilt and grief,
for those living with anxiety and depression,
so that, even where death’s grip tightens, all may know the power of the One who conquered fear and death.

Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

THE FIRST READING

This reading, taken from the New Testament, is from the epistles.

2 Corinthians 8: 7-15

Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written,

“The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little.”

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

The psalms are prayers that Jesus used and cover every mood of humanity's relationship with God and one another.

Psalm 130

Out of the depths have I called to you(1)
Lord, hear my voice (2) let your ears consider well the voice of my suppli-ca-tion (4)

REFRAIN

If you were to note what is done a-miss,
O God, who could stand?
For there is forgiveness with you;
therefore you shall be feared.

REFRAIN

I wait for you, O God, my soul waits for you;
my hope is in your word.
My soul waits for God more than sentinels for the morn-ing more than sentinels for the morn-ing

REFRAIN

O Israel, wait for God,
the One with whom there is mercy;
With you, O God, there is plenteous re-demp-tion, and you shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (sung by all)

*The Spirit of truth will testify to me, says the Lord;
and you also will testify.*

THE HOLY GOSPEL

This reading is taken from one of the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John) which depict the life, teachings, death, resurrection and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the particular importance placed on Jesus' words and actions.

Mark 5: 21-43

The Lord be with you.

And also with you

The Holy Gospel of our Saviour Jesus Christ according to Mark

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live." So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well." Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?" And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, 'Who touched me?'" He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!" And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

The Gospel of Christ

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE SERMON

The Right Rev. D. Ralph Spence Retired Bishop of Niagara

The sermon directly follows the Gospel because it is to be grounded in the scriptures. It illuminates the scriptural readings and relates them to daily life.

THE CREED

The word “creed” comes from the Latin “credo” for “I believe.” First formulated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD and confirmed in 381 AD, the Nicene Creed is said at the Holy Eucharist, particularly on special feast days, declaring our loving trust in the Triune God and exploring the relationship between the three “persons” of God – the Creator/Father, Jesus the Christ/Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Let us confess our faith, as we say,

We believe in one God
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.

He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

We pray for ourselves and particularly on behalf of others. In our prayers we pray for the universal church, the nation and all who govern, the welfare of the world, the concerns of our community of faith, including those who are in need or suffer, and for the departed. We are reminded in prayer that we are a part of a larger fellowship, the Church – the Body of Christ. Please respond as directed by the Intercessor.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Confessing our sins, receiving forgiveness (absolution) and showing signs of peace to one another prepare us to receive Christ in the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

Jesus said: Before you offer your gift, go and be reconciled. As brothers and sisters in God's family, we come together to ask our Father for forgiveness.

Most merciful God,

We confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen

The presider offers absolution and the people respond

Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PEACE

Christ is our peace.
He has reconciled us to God in one body by the cross.
We meet in his name and share his peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

The Celebration of the Eucharist

THE OFFERTORY

Having listened to the Word of God, affirmed our faith, confessed our sins, received forgiveness and shared in the peace, we are prepared for the drama and miracle of the Holy Communion. At the offertory we gratefully offer back some of what God has given us, symbolically in the elements, and in our contributions towards the work of the church.

All are invited to make a gift to support the Cathedral's ministry of sharing God's love with the world by donating online at www.cathedralhamilton.ca

OFFERTORY HYMN – Once to Every Man and Nation

TEXT: James Russell Lowell (1819-1891)
MUSIC: Thomas John Williams (1869-1944). EBENEZER

Once to every man and nation
By the light of burn-ing mar-tyrs, Though the cause of e-vil pros-per, comes the mo-ment to de-cide, in the strife of Christ thy bleed-ing feet we track, toil-ing up new yet 'tis truth a-lone is strong; though her por-tion truth with false-hood, for the good or e-vil side:
Cal-varies ev-er with the cross that turns not back.
be the scaf-fold, and u-pon the throne be wrong,
some great cause, God's new Mes-si-ah,
New oc-ca-sions teach new du-ties;
yet that scaf-fold sways the fu-ture,
of-fering each the bloom or blight;
time makes an-cient good un-couth;
and be-hind the dim un-known,
and the choice goes by for-ev-er they must up-ward still and on-ward stand-eth God with-in the sha-dow,
'twixt that dark-ness and that light.
who would keep a-breast of truth.
keep-ing watch a-bove his own.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

God of wisdom,
receive all we offer you this day.
Enrich our lives with the gifts of your Spirit, that we may follow the way of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and serve one another in freedom.
We ask this in his name.

Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us to do: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving, or Eucharistic Prayer, is a long prayer with four parts. Each of these four parts corresponds to a different action of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum corda, meaning "Lift up your hearts."

The Lord be with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to God

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth;
by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a holy people in Jesus Christ our Lord;
you renew that mystery in bread and wine and nourish us,
to show forth your glory in all the world.
Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the holy people who have served you in every age, we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, ho - ly Lord.
God of pow'r and might, Heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bles - sed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation;
in calling Israel to be your people;
in your Word spoken through the prophets;
and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world.
In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you.
In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread;
and when he had given thanks to you,
he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, Father, according to his command,

we remember his death,
we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory;

and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you,
Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.
We pray you, gracious God,
to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant.
Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him,
may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new,
and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation;
by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

We pray together the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is an ancient connection.

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

“I am the bread of life” says the Lord.
“Whoever comes to me will never be hungry;
who believes in me will never thirst.”

Taste and see that the Lord is good;
happy are they who trust in him!

Je - sus, Lamb of God: have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus bear-er of our sins: have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus re-deem-er of the world: give us your peace.

THE INVITATION TO SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

A spiritual communion is a personal devotional that anyone can pray at any time to express their desire to receive Holy Communion at that moment, but in which circumstances impede them from actually receiving Holy Communion.

Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be, to receive Christ,
in communion with the saints,
and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

Many are made one

We receive you Lord Jesus Christ,
We welcome your presence in us,
And together proclaim our love for you; With our hearts, minds, our souls and our strength,
With the saints we worship you, With the angels we adore you,
With your whole Church, we proclaim your reign,
Come to us, though many, and make us one in you

Amen.

I invite you in the silence of your own hearts to make your own act of Communion with Christ.

Come Lord Jesus and make in my heart your dwelling place and home.

I seek to love you with all my heart, mind, soul and strength, and so through your presence of bread and wine

I receive you afresh and praise you for you are my God.

As you fill me, so may my love for you and for all your people, rise and overflow, that with joy and thanksgiving

I may serve you in the world you love. Amen.

MUSIC AT COMMUNION

SOLO – Sing ye praise

Felix Mendelssohn

*Sing ye praise, all ye redeemed of the Lord, redeemed from the hand of the foe,
from your distresses, from deep affliction;
who sat in the shadow of death and darkness.
All ye that cry in trouble unto the Lord,
sing ye praise! give ye thanks, proclaim aloud His goodness.
He counteth all your sorrows in the time of need.
He comforts the bereaved with his regard, proclaim aloud his goodness.*

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

God of power,
we are nourished by the riches of your grace.
Raise us to new life in your Son Jesus Christ and fit us for his eternal kingdom, that all the world may call him Lord.
We ask this in his name.

Amen.

THE BLESSING

The God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ Jesus, establish, strengthen and settle you in the faith; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

Amen

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

THE DISMISSAL

Go forth into the world rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

Thanks be to God.
